New Year's Eve Party 31st December 2019

A decade hosting our infamous New Year's Eve parties and trust us this party should not be underestimated!

"Professional", "Slick" and "Sheer Class" are three descriptions that only partly portray the sensational talents of this exceptional band! Xerox productions are extending their talents from Want U Back Take That, Jersey Boys and now their latest band 'A total recall twist from the 80's'. Live band, professional dance routines complimented with great costume changes focusing on going back to the 80's.

We are really looking forward to hosting this special tribute on New Year's Eve!
