EAT, DRINK AND RELAX IN STYLE

Welcome to Ye Olde Punchbowl Inn Bridgnorth, we hope you enjoy our hospitality and fine homemade food, all locally sourced and freshly prepared to the highest standard by our experienced chefs.

Nostalgia Inns began at our sister pub the Plough Inn Far Forest, when in 2002 we purchased our first venue with a small cash flow and a lot of ambition. In October 2002, we introduced our carvery which created a lot of negativity with the locals - as the saying goes 'people don't like change'. The concept, in which we have fifty years of experience in the trade, was an instant success. As the carvery started to outgrow the pub, we made vast modifications to the site, doubling the size of the kitchens, bars and restaurant area. By 2004 the Plough had doubled in size and tripled in turnover. But it didn't stop here as our customer base kept growing producing up to six hundred meals every Sunday, with the recommendation from our bank manager we searched for our second venue, and we acquired the Punchbowl in June 2005 to expand the business.

Nostalgia Inns is a family run business to the truest sense of the word, now owning two pubs in the Worcestershire and Shropshire counties. As our parents continue to prosper at the Plough, we continue the success as the third generation in the trade at Ye Olde Punchbowl Inn.

Adam, his two sons Jake & Zach and the staff will be pleased to greet old and new friends and have the pleasure of supplying them with our fine selection of Beers, Real Ales, Wines, Premium Spirits and Cocktails.

That's Business,
Cheers,

Adam & Charlotte

History of 'Ye Olde Punchbowl Inn'

Ye Olde Punchbowl Inn is over 700 years old with the actual date of its' construction unknown. It was originally a hundred house and was first licensed as a pub in 1740 with the central part of the building serving as the pub itself. The present lounge area was one of three farm buildings that were part of the pub, the cellar and accommodation rooms were also outbuildings as part of the farm, and in the early 1900's the buildings were connected to make a larger pub. The building still retains much of its original characteristics despite major structural modifications over fifty years ago, only since the 1960's has the bar actually had beer pumps as the cellar for the pub was directly opposite us below the hundred house, and the beer was transported in porcelain jugs from the barrel to the bar for patrons to quench their thirst.

THE PUNCH BOWL

It was renamed Ye Olde Punchbowl Inn in the middle of the 19th Century, probably because of its association with the Whig party who were traditionally Sherry and Punch drinkers.

During the seize of Bridgnorth as part of the civil war in 1646, many of Oliver Cromwell's troops billeted at the Punchbowl. We were one of the few buildings that survived when the Royal troops, also known as the 'Cavaliers', set fire to all the buildings in high town. St Leonard's church was also destroyed then rebuilt after the fire.

In 2015 the venue doubled in size, creating magnificent gardens with the introduction of marriages to take place on the premises. We wanted to capture the stunning countryside views and share them with everyone who visits us.

Many people question the fact of whether the Punchbowl Inn is haunted. Well in our opinion it is haunted, as many staff including Adam himself have witnessed strange supernatural events from screaming noises to ghostly visions both on and off camera. There are supposedly two resident ghosts which even some customers have sensed whilst dining. Our first resident ghost is believed to be a man named Harold who walks throughout the building with his Irish wolf hound dog by his side, sightings of Harold have been reported in the Ludlow suite on many occasions and there was a landlord with the name Harold in the 1800's. Harold was tormented in life and has a disfigured face after a terrible shooting accident, his only companion being his dog. It is believed that Harold was married but through his own torment he took his wife's life and the life of a little girl called Jesse.

Our second resident ghost is believed to be Jesse herself, who walks around the Punchbowl crying, a sad lost soul. Many people, including several staff have heard Jesse crying and Jake, Adam's eldest Son, used to talk to Jesse when he was just two years old. According to several mediums, it is believed that Jesse died an unpleasant death at Harold's hands at the Punchbowl and fears him. Perhaps crying out for help when Harold approaches?
